

FIRST MEETING EVALUATION

The first meeting in Italy was evaluated by 81 people: students, teachers, families and business people. The general evaluation is very positive, emphasizing the excellent experience that it has been for everybody.

Some possible things to improve are the organization, the activities done in the school and the planning of the free time.

All the evaluations have been introduced in a drive survey and the results can be found there.